Greetings Distinguished Guest, Alumni, Friends, and Family,

We extend an invitation to the 48th Annual Clafin University International Alumni Association Convention with enthusiasm and great pleasure. The entire Central Savannah River Area (CSRA Alumni Chapter team is excited and honored to host the 2022 convention. As we reflect on our theme for this convention, "Feeling Good from the Garden City to the Hilltop High," the CSRA Alumni Chapter WELCOMES you to the Garden City - the home of the Masters Golf Tournament, Opera Singer Jessye Norman, Actor Laurence Fishburne and the Godfather of Soul, James Brown!

Amid a global pandemic for the past two years, you've been resilient, faith-filled, supportive of one another, and committed to a shared set of values. We've worked diligently with anticipation for the return of our in-person convention; safety is of the utmost importance. Thank you in advance for adhering to CDC guidelines laid out for all Clafin University in-person events.

We want this event to be everything you've imagined. That said, any questions or concerns you may have, we are eager to address.

This year's conference is full of impactful engagements. Our focus is on sharing ideas and resources to support and propel Clafin University to historic heights. Thank you for your valuable insights. We gather, enjoying fellowship and reflecting on memories while making new ones together.

Lastly, we express a tremendous thank you to our fellow CUIAA Chapters for their endless dedication, commitment, and sacrifices. You are the embodiment of our mutual goal to support our beloved institution, Clafin University where "The World Needs Visionaries."

Very Respectfully,

CSRA Chapter Convention Committee
