2020-2021 HIGH SCHOOL COMPLETION STATUS

Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law states that before awarding Federal Student Aid, the Financial Aid Office may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, a comparison of the information on your FAFSA, the information on the verification document, and any other required documents must be done. You must sign this worksheet, attach all required documents, and submit to the Financial Aid Office. Additional information may be requested. If you have questions about the verification process, please contact the Financial Aid Office as soon as possible so that your financial aid award and/or processing will not be delayed.
